About How Layden, Single Handed, Beat Stanford in the Rose Bowl

January 1, 1925—Stanford and Notre Dame meet in the Tournament of Roses for the national championship. Led by Ernie Nevers, Stanford is doped to win.

IT'S NEVERS AGAIN! NOTRE DAME CAN'T STOP HIM—HE'S ONE OF THE GREATEST FULL-BACKS OF ALL TIME—HE'S PUT THE BALL ON THE IRISH 40-YARD LINE—

Next play—Nevers takes the ball from center. It's a pass... looks good——But it isn't! A lithe and supple member of the most glamorous backfield in football history—the Four Horsemen—leaps high into the air and intercepts the pass.

It's Elmer Layden who turns possible defeat into certain victory for Notre Dame. Twice in the single game Layden intercepts Stanford passes and carries them over the goal—one 65 and one 70 yards! His 12 points surpass the Stanford total—Notre Dame wins, 27 to 10.

Here is the man, whose sheer speed cutting like a tablet through opposing lines, led Notre Dame to its first national championship. Layden is now head football coach at Notre Dame.

POOR JOHNNY—AND SOME PEOPLE THINK NOTHING IS A PLEASURE!

PLOP! PLOP! PLOP!

GREAT SCOT! THERE IT GOES AGAIN!

POOR DEAR—I'LL GET IT FIXED FOR YOU THIS TIME!

HERE COMES A CAR—WIDE—QUICK!

CAN I HELP YOU, MISS?

OH, WOULD YOU'VE HAD SO MUCH TROUBLE?

GOSH, FOUR FLATS? I'LL TIEAL YOU INTO ONE, IN CASE YOU HAVE ANY MORE!

TIEAL ME IN? OH NO—I COULDN'T PUT YOU TO SO MUCH TROUBLE!

OH, IT'S NO TROUBLE AT ALL—GLAD TO DO IT—I INSIST!

BUT—BUT—

I'LL HAVE TO DRIVE BACK FOR JOHNNY AFTER THIS MAN TIES ME HOME!

OH, YEAH—SHE FIXED THINGS UP—AND NOW!

HOWARD HUGHES, MILLIONAIRE MOVIE PRODUCER AND SPORTSMAN PILOT, STARTLED THE WORLD A FEW MONTHS AGO WITH A FAST RECORD DASH FROM LOS ANGELES TO NEWARK IN HIS SPECIAL RACING MACHINE SHOWN AT THE LEFT. HE COVERED THE 2,429 MILE STRETCH IN 7 HRS 28 MIN AND 25 SEC ON ONE OCCASION, WHILE FLYING AT 10,000 FEET. HIS OXYGEN SUPPLY WAS CUT OFF. FIGHTING TO REMAIN CONSCIOUS, HE DROVE THE POWERFUL SHIP EARTHWARD UNTIL HE WAS ABLE TO BREATHE WITHOUT HIS OXYGEN MASK. THIS ALL-METAL SPEED DEMON IS POWERED WITH A 1,000 HORSEPOWER PRATT & WHITNEY WASP JET MOTOR.

Norma Shearer

THE LIFE STORY OF NORMA SHEARER READS LIKE A FAIRY TALE. HAVING ALWAYS HAD THE DESIRE TO BE AN ACTRESS AND BELIEVING IN HER ABILITY, NORMA AND HER MOTHER LEFT THEIR CANADIAN HOME FOR AMERICA TO BREAK INTO THE MOVIES.

GETTING INTO THE MOVIES WAS NOT AS SIMPLE AS NORMA HAD VISIONED. MONTHS OF NEAR STARVATION WERE INTERRUPTED BY SMALL PARTS.

IN HOLLYWOOD SHE MET HER HUSBAND WHOM AT FIRST SHE MISTOOK FOR THE OFFICE BOY. HIS APPEARANCE WAS SO YOUTHFUL!

AT LAST THE BREAK CAME. SHE STARTED PLAYING LEADS AND THEN ONE DAY A CONTRACT ARRIVED FROM LOUIS B. MAYER AND WITH IT THE CHANCE TO GO TO HOLLYWOOD!

AFTER MANY OUTSTANDING PERFORMANCES SHE RECEIVED THE ACADEMY AWARD!

DURING THE FILMING OF ROMEO AND JULIET A GREAT TRAGEDY OCCURRED. HER HUSBAND AND PRODUCER, IRVING THALBERG, DIED!

About How Tiny Eckersall Wreathed the Great Heston's Touchdown
Sprint

Only 145-pound Walter Eckersall stands between the mighty Willie Heston of Michigan and the goal that afternoon in 1904.

But, with remarkable agility, Eckersall recovers his balance, wheels on one foot and takes out
after the flying Michigan star, himself an all-time all-American.

Knowing he can neither dodge, stiff-arm nor bowl over Chicago's tiny all-time all-American quarterback, Heston hurdles
the charging mite—the crowd thundered its applause.

Heston was one of the fastest men who ever played —but Eckersall could outrun any man he ever met on a football field! Hardly had Heston regained his stride when Eckersall nails him from behind! Game ends — Michigan, 22; Chicago, 12.

Here's Walter Eckersall, Chicago's brainy midget—all-American in 1904, 1905 and 1906. He died several years ago.
